Crl.O.P.No.25063 of 2024

K.GOVINDARAJAN THILAKAVADI, J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest for the alleged offence under Sections 189(2), 126(2), 132 and 351(2) of BNS Act, in Crime No.300 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other persons entered the office of the defacto complainant, who is working as a Deputy Superintending Engineer(II) in Nabard and Rural Road, Hasthampatti and demanded unnecessary documents, which is irrelevant to the tender and also she came with the media persons and tried to sit in tharna in front of the office of the defacto complainant. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and she has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner is no way connected with the alleged offence. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioner along with other persons have used criminal force against the defacto complainant, who is a public servant and also prevented her from performing her duties. Hence, he opposed for granting anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case, the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on her appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.3, Salem, on condition that the petitioner shall
