WEB CO P.DHANABAL, J.

The petitioner apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Section 296(b), 118(i) and 351(3) of BNS in Crime No.296 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to some dispute in respect of non providing of Chutney in hotel, a wordy quarrel arose between the petitioner and the defacto complainant. As a result, the petitioner assaulted the defacto complainant with hands. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case. However, on instructions, the learned counsel further submits that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner further represented that crime number has been wrongly mentioned as Cr.No. 296

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that due to some dispute in respect of non providing of Chutney in hotel, a wordy quarrel arose between the petitioner and the defacto complainant. As a result, the petitioner assaulted the defacto complainant with hands and he further submitted that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner. However, he opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the representations made by both sides and considering the nature of offences charged against the petitioner and no previous case is pending against the petitioner and also considering the fact that the injured was discharged from hospital and there is a case in counter, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his/her appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the
