The petitioner, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 09.09.2024 for the offences punishable under sections 87 of BNS Act and Section 9 of Child Marriage Act in Crime No.81 of 2024 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 04.09.2024, the petitioner was abducted the defacto-complainant's sister who is a minor girl aged about 14 years and married the said minor girl. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would contend that the petitioner and the victim girl have love affair, the victim girl eloped with the petitioner and got married with him. This petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. This petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case. This petitioner is an innocent person and he has nothing to do with the commission of alleged offences and he is ready to abide by any condition imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks bail to the petitioner.

CRL O.P. No.25171 of 2024

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that the petitioner was abducted the defacto-complainant's sister who is a minor girl aged about 14 years and married the said minor girl. There is no previous case against the petitioner. Already, statement under Section 183 of BNS Act was recorded from the victim girl. This petitioner was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 09.09.2024. However, he objected to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions on either side and considering the charges levelled against the petitioner and considering the nature offence, there is no previous case against the petitioner, already, statement under Section 183 of BNSS was recorded from the victim girl and considering the said statement of the victim girl and also considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:
