The petitioner apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Sections 143, 427, 457 and 379 of IPC in Crime No.357 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to property dispute, the petitioner along with other accused removed the fence and trespassed into the property belongs to the defacto complainant and stolen the bore well motor. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case and he is the owner of the property and the property has not owned by the defacto complainant. However, on instructions, the learned counsel further submits that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that due to property dispute, the petitioner along with other accused removed the fence and trespassed into the property belongs to the defacto complainant and stolen the bore well motor. He further submitted that there is no previous case against the petitioners. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the representations made by both sides and the nature of offences charged against the petitioner and there is a civil dispute between the parties and there is no previous case against the petitioner and considering all other aspects this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his/her appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Ponneri, Thiruvallur District, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only), with two sureties, each for a like sum to the
