Crl.O.P.No.25193 of 2024

WEB C P.DHANABAL, J.

The petitioner apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Sections 191(2), 296(b), 308(2) and 351(3) of BNS in Crime No.652 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to money dispute, the petitioner along with other accused kidnapped the defacto complainant, abused him and forcibly taken away his car and subsequently, the car was returned. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and due to money transaction between A1 and the defacto complainant, the defacto complainant has given a false complaint against the petitioner. He further submitted that the car was returned. However, on instructions, the learned counsel further submits that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that due to money dispute, the petitioner along with other accused kidnapped the defacto complainant, abused him and forcibly taken away his car and subsequently, the car was returned. He further submitted that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the representations made by both sides and the nature of offences charged against the petitioner and there is a money dispute pending between the A1 and the defacto complainant and there is no previous case against the petitioner and also of the fact that the car was returned, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his/her appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Poonamallee, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten
