Crl.O.P.No.25376 of 2024

WEB C P.DHANABAL, J.

The petitioner apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Sections 147, 148, 294(b), 336 and 353 of IPC in Crime No.552 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to enmity between two college groups, the petitioner along with other has abused the defacto complainant, Sub Inspector of Police, while she was in night rounds and tried to attack her with knife. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner who is a student, is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case. However, on instructions, the learned counsel further submits that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that due to enmity between two college groups, the petitioner along with other has abused the defacto complainant, Sub Inspector of Police, while she was in night rounds and tried to attack her with knife. He further submitted that A1 to A7 were arrested and released on bail. He also submitted that there is no previous case against the petitioner. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the representations made by both sides and the nature of offences charged against the petitioner and the co-accused were arrested and released on bail and also considering that there is no previous case against the petitioner and the petitioner is a student, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his/her appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the learned Metropolitan Magistrate No.XV, George Town, Chennai on condition that each of the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only), with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioner shall report before the respondent Police on everyday at 6.30 P.M., for a period of 30 days;

[b] the petitioner shall not, directly or indirectly, make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him from disclosing such facts of the Court or to any police officer.

[c] the petitioner shall not leave India without the previous permission of the Court.

[d] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] the petitioner shall make himself/herself available for interrogation by a police officer as and when required.

[f] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].

Crl.O.P.No.25376 of 2024

[g] If the petitioner thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 269 B.N.S.
