Crl.O.P. No.25415 of 2024

P. DHANABAL.J.,

The petitioners apprehend arrest for the alleged offences under Sections 296(b), 115(2), 118(1) and 351(3) of BNS in Crime No.250 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto-complainant owned a land and in that land he is doing agricultural work. There is a land dispute between the adjacent land owners/accused. The accused persons were illegally entered into the defacto-complainant's land and they grazed cows on the land, then the defacto-complainant used to stop them from entering his land suddenly the accused persons blocked him and used filthy language against the deacto-complainant and assaulted the defacto-complainant. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would contend that these petitioners are innocent persons and they have not indulged in any illegal activities as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case by the respondent police. There is no previous case as against these petitioners. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that the defacto-complainant owned a land and in that land he is doing agricultural work. There is a legal dispute between the adjacent land owners/accused, due to which the petitioners abused the defacto-complainant in filthy language and attacked him and he sustained injury. In this case, 3rd accused arrested and subsequently released on bail. There is no previous case as against these petitioners. The injured person was discharged from hospital. However, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both side and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions on either side, considering the nature of offence and considering that there is civil dispute between the parties, in this case 3rd accused was arrested and subsequently released on bail, the injured person was discharged from hospital, there is no previous case is pending against these petitioners and also considering other aspects, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners,
