Crl.O.P.No.25483 of 2024

BNSS, 2023 @ Sections 85, 108 of BNS Act, in Crime No.429 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the deceased is the daughter of the defacto complainant. Due to matrimonial dispute, there was a wordy quarrel between the petitioner and the deceased, for which, the deceased committed suicide by hanging. Based on the complaint lodged by the defacto complainant, the case was registered against the petitioner.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He has not committed any offence as alleged in the FIR. He further submits that due to cruelty done by the petitioner, the deceased committed suicide. He further submit that the petitioner was arrested and is in judicial custody for more than 30 days and is ready to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the deceased is the wife of the petitioner.

On the date of the alleged occurrence, due to matrimonial dispute, there was a wordy quarrel between them, for which, the deceased committed suicide by hanging. He further submitted that the petitioner has no previous case pending against him. He further submits that the investigation is still pending. However, he opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the First Information Report.

6. Considering the nature of offence, and considering the relationship between the parties and there was a matrimonial dispute between the petitioner and the deceased, and the petitioner has no previous case, pending against him, and considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, and also considering all others factors, I am inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the Judicial
