2. On the date when the matter came for admission on 19.10.2024, the fifth respondent, who claims to be a land owner, appeared through a counsel and states that the possession was taken on volunteer surrender by one Sathish, who is the sub-lessee under the petitioner. However, from the records, the property was leased to the petitioner after receiving the advance of Rs.1,00,000/-, but it appears that the petitioner being re-possessioned forcibly without returning the advanced money by creating record as if possession was taken from one Sathish – sub lessee under the petitioner. The complaint given by the petitioner as well as the fifth respondent is closed by the Police as civil in nature. However, the
