The petitioner, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 15.08.2024 for the offences punishable under sections 309, 311 of BNS in Crime No.609 of 2024 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 15.08.2024, the petitioner and other accused persons were went to the defacto-complainant's paper shop and demanded money and when the same was refused by him, immediately, the petitioner and other accused persons were robbed the cash Rs.1650/- from the defacto-complainant at knife point and using filthy language against the defacto-complainant. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would contend that this petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. This petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case. This petitioner is an innocent person and he has nothing to do with the commission of alleged offences and he is ready to abide by any condition imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks bail to the petitioner.

CRL O.P. No.25674 of 2024

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that the petitioner and other accused persons were threatened the defacto-complainant at knife point and robbed cash from the defacto-complainant. The amount was recovered from the accused persons. This petitioner is having some previous cases, in all those cases already he was granted bail. This petitioner was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 15.08.2024. However, he objected to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions on either side and considering the nature of offence, the money involved in this case, the property was also recovered from the accused persons, though the petitioner is having some previous cases, in all those cases, he was already granted bail and also considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:
