ORDER

The petitioner, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 17.08.2024 for the offences under Sections 5(j)(ii) r/w Section 6 of POCSO Act,2012 in Crime No.32 of 2024 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner fell in love with the victim who is a minor girl and and thereafter had physical contact with her, due to which the victim girl became pregnant. Hence, the complaint.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person, he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution, and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner has been in custody since 17.08.2024 ; that he is a law-abiding citizen; that he is ready to furnish substantial sureties for his due release on bail; and therefore, he prays for the grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate opposes the grant of bail to the petitioner by stating that statement under Section 183 of BNSS, has also been recorded from the victim girl, wherein, she had reiterated the contention of the F.I.R. He further submit that there is no previous case, pending against him.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent and perused the materials available on record including the statement recorded from the victim girl under Section 183 of BNSS,

6. Considering the submissions of the learned counsel on either side, and the nature of offence charged against the petitioner, considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, and taking note of the statement recorded from the victim girl under Section 183 of BNSS, and the petitioner has no previous case, pending against him and also considering all others factors, I am inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.
