respondent police raised an objection stating that there are four accused in this case and the petitioners herein is ranked as A1. He further submits that the petitioner along with other accused forged land documents, cheated the defacto complainant using fake Aadhar cards and sold the property to the third person. He further submits that the specific overt act against this petitioner is that he created fake documents and sold the property to the third person. He further submits that this petitioner is only the root cause. He further submits that the investigation is at initial stage. Hence, he opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) and also perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the gravity of the offence, and the fact that so many cases are registered against the petitioner, and also considering that the investigation is at initial stage, at this stage, this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.

7. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition stands dismissed.
