4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) objected for granting bail to the petitioner stating that due to family dispute, the petitioner had scolded the deceased in filthy language and had also attacked with iron rod on his head and immediately the deceased had admitted in hospital and later died. He would further submit that the petitioner is a history sheeted rowdy and there are 13 previous cases against the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the submissions made on both sides and also considering the nature of offences charged against the petitioner and also taking into consideration the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner from 03.08.2024 and though the petitioner is having some previous cases, in those case, he was granted bail, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions:

[a]. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the court of Judicial Magistrate No.II, Nagapattinam, and on further conditions that:
