The petitioners apprehend arrest for the alleged offences under Sections 147, 506(ii) of IPC and Section 3 of TNPPDL Act, in Crime No.64 of 2022, on the file of the respondent police seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity, the petitioners picked a quarrel with the defacto complainant, during the quarrel, the petitioners have damaged the backside mirror of his car. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioners have been falsely implicated in this case. However, on instructions, the learned counsel further submits that the petitioners are ready and willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that due to previous enmity, the petitioners picked a quarrel with the defacto complainant, during the quarrel, the petitioners have damaged the backside mirror of his car worth about Rs.5,000/-. He further submitted that there is no previous case against petitioners. He also submitted that no one has been injured in this case. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the representations made by both sides and the nature of offences charged against the petitioners and there is no previous case against the petitioners and no one has been injured in this case and considering all other aspects, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Ambattur, on condition that each of the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only), with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction
