The petitioner apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Section 85 of BNS in Crime No.16 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner and the defacto complainant are husband and wife. The petitioner failed to maintain the defacto complainant and her daughter, assaulted and caused cruelty. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case. However, on instructions, the learned counsel further submits that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioner and the defacto complainant are husband and wife. In the year 2017, the petitioner performed the marriage of his elder daughter Afreen Bhanu with one Karimullah in grand manner. After the solemnization of the marriage of his elder daughter, the petitioner failed to maintain his family and assaulted the defacto complainant and caused cruelty and he further submitted that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner. However, he opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the representations made by both sides and considering the nature of offences charged against the petitioner and considering the relationship between the parties and there is a family dispute pending between the parties and no previous case is pending against the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his/her appearance, within a period of fifteen
