Crl.O.P.No.26140 of 2024

191(2), 191(3), 126(2), 296(b), 115(2), 311 and 351(3) of BNS, 2023 in Crime No.648 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 21.09.2024 at about 6.00 a.m, when the defacto complainant was going to work, at that time, the petitioner along with other accused persons, waylaid the defacto complainant and demanded money, when he refused, the petitioner assaulted him and also robbed Rs.1,500/- from him at knife point. Hence the complaint.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. since he has got some previous cases. He has not committed any offence as alleged in the FIR. He further submits that the co-accused was granted bail by this Court. He would further submit that the petitioner was arrested and is in judicial custody for more than 30 days and is ready to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that there are totally six accused in this case and the petitioner herein is ranked as A2. On the date of the alleged occurrence, when the defacto complainant was going to work, at that time, the petitioner along with other accused persons, waylaid the defacto complainant and demanded money, when he refused, the petitioner assaulted him and also robbed Rs.1,500/- from him at knife point. He further submits that the petitioner has 14 previous cases, pending against him. However, he opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the First Information Report.

6. Considering the nature of offence, money involved in this case, co-accused released on bail, considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner from 21.09.2024, and though the petitioner has 14 previous cases, and all are not similar kind of offence, in all the cases, he has been released on bail, and also considering all others factors, I am inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.
