4. Learned Special Public Prosecutor opposes the grant of bail to the petitioner by stating that the petitioner along with other accused were in possession of 239 grams of Magic Mushrooms. He further submitted that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the representation made on both sides and taking note of the fact that co-accused in this case has been granted bail, there is no previous case pending against the petitioner and also taking into consideration the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions:

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Special Judge for EC/NDPS Act cases at Chennai and on further conditions that:

[a] the petitioner shall report before the concerned NDPS Court on all working days at 10.30 a.m., until further
