

W.M.P.No.31275 of 2023
in W.P.No.29815 of 2023

N.ANAND VENKATESH, J

This petition was filed seeking to recall the order passed by this Court on 17.10.2023.

2.Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned counsel appearing on behalf of the respondents.

3.On going through the order passed on 17.10.2023, it is seen that this Court had merely recorded the submission made by the learned Government Advocate and disposed of the criminal original petition. This Court did not give any positive directions and it was more in the nature of disposing the petition based on the submission.

4.It is also brought to the notice of this Court that pursuant to the order, the drainage has also been laid. That apart, there is also a civil suit pending between the parties before the competent Civil Court. In view of the same, it is left open to the parties to raise all the claims before the competent Civil Court. If the petitioner in this recall petition requires any other interim order, it is left open to the petitioner to file an appropriate application before the Civil Court and seek for the remedy. The order passed in the writ petition will not have any bearing on the civil suit that is pending before the competent Civil Court.

5.This criminal miscellaneous petition is disposed of in the above terms.
