The petitioner apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Section 147, 148, 294(b), 323, 324, 506(2) of IPC and Section 4 of TN Women Harassment Act, 2002 in Crime No.375 of 2021, on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to some previous enmity between the petitioner and the defacto complainant in respect of ancestor house property, the petitioner abused and attacked the defacto complainant and his wife using iron rod and both have sustained injuries. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case. However, on instructions, the learned counsel further submits that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that due to some previous enmity between the petitioner and the defacto complainant in respect of ancestor house property, the petitioner abused and attacked the defacto complainant and his wife using iron rod and both have sustained injuries and further, considering the gravity of offence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the representations made by both sides and considering the nature of offences charged against the petitioner and there is a dispute pending between the brothers and already injured was discharged from hospital and also considering that investigation is completed and filed absconding charge sheet, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his/her appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the Judicial Magistrate, Gingee on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only), with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned

Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioner shall report before the jurisdictional Magistrate on every first working day of English Calender Month at 10.30 A.M. for a period of three months;

[b] the petitioner shall not, directly or indirectly, make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him from disclosing such facts of the Court or to any police officer.

[c] the petitioner shall not leave India without the previous permission of the Court.

[d] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] the petitioner shall make himself/herself available for interrogation by a police officer as and when required.

[f] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the
