4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) would submit that the petitioner along with other accused were in illegal possession of 1.200 Kgs of Ganja and he further submitted that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner in similar kind of offence. However, he opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both side counsels and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the representation made on either side and also considering the nature of offence charged against the petitioner and quantity of materials involved in this case is not a commercial quantity and no contraband was recovered from this petitioner and also considering that there is no previous case is pending against the petitioner in similar kind of offence, though the petitioner is having two previous cases in IPC offence, in all cases, bail was granted and also considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, I am
