ORDER

The petitioner, who was arrested on 13.09.2024 and remanded to judicial custody on the same day for the offences under Sections 8(c), 20(b)(ii)(B), 29(1) of NDPS Act, in Crime No.223 of 2024 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused were found in possession of 1 kg 400 grams of Ganja. Hence, the case.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person, he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution, and he has been falsely implicated in this case and he is a law-abiding citizen and he is ready to furnish substantial sureties for his due release on bail; therefore, he prays for the grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) objected for granting bail to the petitioner stating that totally there are six accused and the petitioner along with other accused were found in possession of 1 kg 400 grams of Ganja. He would further submit that only 40 grams of ganja have been recovered from this petitioner and there are three previous cases against this petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the submissions made on both sides, the quantity of material involved in this case, and also taking into consideration the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner from 13.09.2024 and the contraband involved in this case is not a commercial quantity and though the petitioner is having three previous cases, in all those cases, he was granted bail and all the cases are not similar kind of offences, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions:

[a]. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand
