imposed by this Court. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent submits that the petitioner herein along with other three others waylaid the defacto complainant and demanded money, but he has denied to pay the money, then one of the accused had slapped him after that the petitioner had robbed a sum of Rs.550/- from the defacto complainant. He further submits that the robbed money not yet recovered. He admits that there is no previous case against the petitioner. However, he vehemently, opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner as well as the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the nature of offence, the prime accused was arrested and remanded to judicial custody and there is no previous cases against the petitioner and considering all other aspects, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions:
