4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) opposes the grant of bail to the petitioner by stating that the petitioner has entered into his service as a Government teacher by producing fake academic certificates. It is alleged that due to the said illegal act, the petitioner has been suspended from the services and facing departmental proceedings. He further submitted that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the submission of the learned counsel on either side, nature of offence, considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, taking note of the fact that the allegation has been borne out of records, there is no possibility of tampering of evidence, there is no previous case pending against the petitioner and also considering all other factors, I am inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.
