4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) opposes the grant of bail to the petitioner by stating that there was some family dispute between the petitioner/husband and the defacto complainant/wife due to which the petitioner attacked the defacto complainant brutally and caused severe injuries to her. He further submitted that the injured discharged from the hospital and there is no previous case pending against the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the submission of the learned counsel on either side, nature of offence, considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, taking note of the fact that the injured discharged from the hospital, there is no previous case pending against the petitioner and also considering all others factors, I am inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.
