SUNDER MOHAN, J.

The learned counsel for petitioner would submit that the trial Court had convicted the respondent and the Appellate Court had erroneously set aside the well considered judgment of the trial Court; that the petitioner and respondent entered into a Partnership Deed and they dissolved the partnership during November, 2016 and as per the Dissolution Deed, the respondent was liable to pay Rs.1,50,000/- immediately and Rs.1,75,000/- on 31.05.2017 together with Rs.30,000/- and that when the petitioner demanded payment of the said sum, the respondent issued a cheque for Rs.2,05,000/- on 31.05.2017 and that cheque is for a valid consideration and hence the judgment of acquittal by the Appellate Court is liable to be set aside.
