The petitioner/A2, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offence punishable under Section 379 of IPC in Crime No.119 of 2022 seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that while the defacto complainant walking on the road, two unknown individuals on a two wheeler intercepted the defacto complainant and snatched his mobile phone. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submits that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent conditions imposed by this Court. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent submits that the petitioner along with another had intercepted the defacto complainant and snatched his mobile phone. He further submits that the mobile phone was recovered, the petitioner is having two previous cases and the prime accused/A1 was arrested and released on bail. However, he vehemently, opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner as well as the learned Government Advocate (CrI.Side) and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the nature of offence, the stolen property was recovered and the co-accused was released on bail, though the petitioner is having two previous cases, in all cases, bail was granted to him and considering all other aspects, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions:

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the
