P.DHANABAL,J.

The petitioners/A1 and A2 who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offence punishable under Sections 117(iii), 118(ii), 296(b), 351(iii) of BNS in Crime No.528 of 2024 seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that there was a wordy quarrel between the petitioners and defacto complainant regarding property dispute, due to which, the petitioners had abused and attacked the defacto complainant and caused injuries to him. Hence, this case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submits that the petitioner had also sustained injuries. He further submits that they are ready to abide by any stringent conditions imposed by this Court. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent submits that there was a wordy quarrel between the petitioners and defacto complainant regarding property dispute, due to which, the petitioners had abused and attacked the defacto complainant and caused injuries to him. He admits that the injured was discharged from the hospital. He further submits that there is no previous case against the petitioner. However, he vehemently opposed for the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners as well as the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the nature of offence, there was a wordy quarrel between the parties regarding property dispute and the injured had discharged from the hospital and also the fact that there is no previous case against the petitioner and considering all other aspects, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.
