P.DHANABAL, J.

The petitioner apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Sections 5 and &(3) of Lottery Regulation Act 1998, in Crime No.522 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with A1 sold lottery tickets illegally near Nallavanpalayam Bye Pass Road. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case. However, on instructions, the learned counsel further submits that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the based on the confession made by the co-accused, the petitioner was arrested and the respondent seized 18 lottery tickets and cash amount of Rs.70,000/-. He would further submit that there is no previous case against the petitioner and further considering the gravity of offence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the representations made by both sides and considering the nature of offences charged against the petitioner and taking into consideration that the petitioner has been arrayed as accused only based on the confession made by the co-accused who was released on bail and there is no previous case is pending against the petitioner and other aspects, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his/her appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the Judicial Magistrate Court No.II, Thiruvannamalai, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten
