P.DHANABAL,J.

The petitioner/accused, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offence punishable under Sections 406 and 420 of IPC in Crime No.182 of 2024 seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that there was a dispute between the petitioner and the defacto complainant regarding business transaction and the petitioner failed to pay money for the business transaction. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submits that the dispute between parties is of civil in nature and that the defacto complainant at the instance of the respondent police is trying to project a criminal colour to the commercial/civil transaction. He further submits there is no previous cases against the petitioner and he is ready to abide by any stringent conditions imposed by this Court. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
