The petitioner, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 12.10.2024 for the offences punishable under Section 7(1) r/w. Section 20(1) of COTPA Act and Section 123 of Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita (BNS), 2023 in Crime No.163 of 2024, on the file of the respondent, seeks bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that petitioner was found in illegal possession of 5 packets of cool lip worth about Rs.1,000/-. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the petitioner has been in custody from 12.10.2024. He would further submit that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) for the respondent would submit that the petitioner was found in possession of banned tobacco products namely, 5 packets of cool lip worth about Rs.1,000/-. He would further submit that there are three previous cases against the petitioner and the material has been seized. However, he raised serious objection to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both side learned counsel and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the nature of offences and the quantity of material involved in this case and that though the petitioner is having three previous cases, all the cases are not similar kind of offence, in all the cases bail was granted and also considering the number of days of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:

[a] Accordingly, the Petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on condition to execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the Learned Judicial Magistrate – V, Coimbatore, and on further
