TNP Act, in Crime No.318 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police,

Crl.O.P.No.26879 of 2024

seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner was found in illegal possession of 20 bottles of Tasmac brandy, each containing 180 ml, for the purpose of sale, without any valid license. Hence, the complaint.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case, since he has got some previous cases. He has not committed any offence as alleged in the FIR. He further submit that the petitioner was arrested and is in judicial custody for more than 20 days and is ready to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioner was found in illegal possession of 20 bottles of Tasmac brandy, each containing 180 ml, for the purpose of sale, without any valid license. He further submits that the petitioner has seven previous cases, pending against him. Hence, he opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the First Information Report.

6. Considering the nature of offence, quantity involved, considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner from 08.10.2024, and though the petitioner has seven previous cases, all are not similar kind of offence, in all the cases, he has been released on bail, and also considering all others factors, I am inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Thiruvallur, and on further conditions that:-

[a] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.30 a.m., until further orders.

[b] the Petitioner shall not commit any offences of similar to the
