The petitioner/A2, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offence punishable under Sections 296(b), 115(2), 118(1), 127 (2), 302(2) and 353(3) of Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita (BNS), 2023 in Crime No.980 of 2024 seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that there was a quarrel between the petitioner and the defacto complainant regarding family dispute, due to which, the defacto complainant's husband/A1 along with the petitioner herein/A2 had abused and assaulted the defacto complainant and also caused injuries to her. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submits that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent conditions imposed by this Court. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (CrI.Side) appearing for the respondent submits that due to family dispute, A1 along with the petitioner/A2 abused and assaulted and also caused injuries to the defacto complainant . He further submits that the injured had discharged from the hospital. He also states that the petitioner is having 14 previous cases. Hence, he vehemently, opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner as well as the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the nature of offence, the injured had already been discharged from the hospital, though the petitioner is having 14 previous cases, all the cases are not similar kind of offences in all cases, bail was granted and considering all other aspects, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions:

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned XV Metropolitan Magistrate Court, George Town, Chennai on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the
