4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) opposes the grant of bail to the petitioner stating that the petitioner/A1 along with other accused, by forging legal heir certificate, showed himself as the sole legal heir of his deceased father, and made a settlement in favour of his wife Arogya Mary pertaining to the ancestral property. He further submitted that there is no previous case against the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the nature of offence, there was a dispute between the parties in respect of immovable property and that there is no previous case against the petitioner, and considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner from 23.09.2024, and also considering all others factors, I am inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.
