P.DHANABAL,J.

The petitioner/accused, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offence punishable under Sections 147, 148, 341, 294(b), 323, 336, 427, 397 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.79 of 2024 seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with others had waylaid the defacto complainant's auto and robbed a sum of Rs.850/- from him at knife point and threatened him with dire consequence. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further states that the co-accused was arrested and enlarged on bail and petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent conditions imposed by this Court. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (CrI.Side) appearing for the respondent submits that the petitioner along with others had waylaid the defacto complainant's auto and robbed a sum of Rs.850/- from him at knife point. He further submits that the petitioner is having one previous case against him. Hence, he vehemently, opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner as well as the learned Government Advocate (CrI.Side) and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the nature of offence, the co-accused had already been arrested and released on bail, the money involved in this case, though the petitioner is having one previous, bail was granted in that case and considering all other aspects, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions:
