3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the petitioner was arrested and is in judicial custody for more than 30 days and is ready to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. respondent police submitted that the petitioner/A2 along with 3 other accused, attacked the defacto complainant with hands and snatched a sum of Rs.2,000/- and a cell phone from him at knife point. He further submitted that there is one previous case against the petitioner. Hence, he vehemently opposed for the grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the First Information Report.

6. Considering the nature of offence, the money involved in this case and considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner from 26.09.2024, and though the petitioner has got one previous case against him, he has been granted bail in that case and also considering all others factors, I am inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned
