5.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) would submit that the first and second Accused were already arrested and released on bail. He would further submit that there is no previous case pending against this Petitioner and the injured was already discharged from the hospital.

6.Taking into consideration the facts of the case and the submission that the Petitioner has no bad antecedents and the first and second Accused were already arrested and released on bail and the injured was already discharged from the hospital, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the Petitioner subject to the following conditions:

7.Accordingly, the Petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Alandur, on condition that the Petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand only), with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the said Magistrate, on further condition that:

Crl.O.P.No.27584 of 2024

[a] if the Petitioner fail to surrender before the said Magistrate within a period of fifteen days, this Order shall stand automatically cancelled;

[b] the Petitioner shall report before the respondent police daily at 06.30 p.m until further orders;

[c] the Petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial;

[d] the Petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the Petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the Petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560];

[f] If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 269 BNS.
