P.DHANABAL,J.

The petitioner/accused who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offence punishable under Section 303(2) and 326(a) of BNS and 21(1) of Mines and Minerals (Development & Regulation) Act, in Crime No.697 of 2024 seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner had illegally transported 10 units of river sand in a lorry bearing Regn.No.AP-16-TY-7657 without having valid permission. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submits that the petitioner is having proper licence from the Government of Andhra Pradesh and the co-accused was enlarged on bail by the lower Court. He further submits that he is ready to abide by any stringent conditions imposed by this Court. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (CrI.Side) appearing for the respondent submits that tthe petitioner had illegally transported 10 units of river sand in a lorry. He further submits that there is no previous case against the petitioner. Hence, he vehemently opposed for the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner as well as the learned Government Advocate (CrI.Side) and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the nature of offences charged against the petitioner and quantity of river sand involved in this case and also the fact that there is no previous case against the petitioner and the petitioner is the owner of the lorry and he is having proper permit from the Government of Andhra Pradesh and the co-accused was enlarged on bail by the lower Court and considering all other aspects, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
