petitioner/A14, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 17.10.2024, seeking bail in Crime No.259 of 2024 registered for the offences under Sections 318(4), 319(2), 336(3) & 340(2) of BNS r/w Section 66D of the Information Technology (Amendment) Act, 2008.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the accused, by impersonating themselves to be the police personnel, had threatened the de facto complainant stating that she is one of the suspects in a money laundering case and put her under pressure for making payment and made her to transfer Rs.4,67,30,000/- to different accounts vide 8 different transactions and cheated her. Hence the case.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case as A14. He further submitted that the petitioner, who is an Engineering graduate, has been involved in various investment platforms and on believing a person, who posed himself as a legitimate investor, he had unknowingly given his account details and the same was misused by the main accused. He further submitted that the co-accused has been granted bail by this Court in
