3. Since no adverse order is passed against the private respondents, notice to the private respondent is dispensed with.

4. There is a dispute between the parties with regard to quarrying the sand and making bricks. It is seen that the allegations levelled as against the private respondents by the petitioner are civil in nature. Hence, this Court cannot give a positive direction to the third respondent/Police.

5. In view of the same, the Writ Petition is dismissed. However, the petitioner is at liberty to work out his remedy in the manner known to law. There shall be no order as to costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition is closed.
