4. It is submitted by the learned counsel for the petitioner that the subject property belong to the petitioner's grandmother. After her demise (grandmother), she was in possession and enjoyment of the property. Whiles, the third respondent trespassed into the property unlawfully. Hence, she made a complaint dated 18.09.2024 before the second respondent seeking to take legal action as against the third respondent. Since the petitioner has not received any response from the respondent police, the petitioner constrained to file the above writ petition.

5. The case of the petitioner is that the private respondent is interfering with her possession. For which, the petitioner has to workout her remedy before the Civil Court. Police protection cannot be given to every doorstep of the State.

6. In view of the same, the Writ Petition is dismissed. No costs.
