Crl.O.P.No.27638 of 2024

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioners/A2 & A3, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b), 288, 115(2), 118(1), 329(4), 351(3) of BNS, 2023, in Crime No.700 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that on 27.10.2024 at about 2.30 p.m., when the defacto complainant was working in petrol bunk, the petitioners along with the other accused came in two-wheelers and fired crackers near petrol pump and when the defacto complainant questioned the same, the accused abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and attacked him with iron rod and caused injuries. Hence, the case.

4.The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that there is no previous case against the petitioners. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. He would further submit that the petitioners are ready to abide by any condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) would submit that due to wordy quarrel between the accused and the defacto complainant in respect of firing of crackers in the petrol bunk, the petitioners along with the other accused abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and assaulted him with iron rod and caused injuries and thereafter, the defacto complainant was admitted to the hospital and he was treated as out patient and discharged on the same day. He would further submit that the petitioners have no previous cases against them. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

6.Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) for the respondent and perused the materials available on record.

7.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the submission that the petitioners have no bad antecedents, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners subject to the following conditions:

[a] Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the Judicial Magistrate, Court No.1, Ulundurpet, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand only), each with two sureties (one of the surety shall be either the father or the mother of the petitioners), each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the said Magistrate, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[b] the petitioners shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.30 a.m for a period of two weeks and thereafter, on every Monday at 10.30 a.m., until further orders.

[c] the petitioners shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial;

[d] the petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the Petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the Petitioners released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560];

[f] If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 269 BNS.
