Crl.O.P.No.27645 of 2024

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

Apprehending arrest in connection with Crime No.11210055241391 of 2024 registered for the offences punishable under Sections 409, 420 and 114 of IPC on the file of the 1st Respondent, the present petition has been filed seeking anticipatory bail.

2.Pleading innocence on the part of the petitioner, false implication in the case, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks indulgence of this court. He further submits that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this court.

3.The case of the prosecution as putforth by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, opposing for grant of anticipatory bail, is that the de facto complainant has supplied goods to the petitioner to the tune of Rs.13,33,425/-, however, the petitioner paid only a sum of Rs.2,93,062/-.

4.The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner was doing textile business and relating to the same the de facto complainant has given a complaint on the file of the first respondent police, upon which, there is an imminent threat of arrest. Hence, the petitioner intends to approach the appropriate jurisdictional Court with appropriate relief so as to enable him to approach the appropriate Court by way of interim relief, he has approached this Court by way of interstate anticipatory bail.

5.In view thereof, notice was issued to the first respondent police. Even though notice has been served, nobody is appearing on behalf of the first respondent.

6.The imminent threat, which is expressed on behalf of the petitioner, and considering the nature of allegations in this case relating to the payment for delivered goods of the de facto complainant and considering the fact that a breathing time can be given to the petitioner to approach the jurisdictional Court by way of filing an appropriate anticipatory bail application or to surrender before the Court concerned and come out on bail, this Court is inclined to grant interstate interim anticipatory bail to the petitioner for a period of four weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order to enable them to move to the Court concerned.

7. Accordingly, interim interstate anticipatory bail is granted to the petitioner for a period of four weeks, on condition that the petitioner shall surrender before the second respondent police within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made is ready and the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.20,000/- (Rupees Twenty Thousand only) to the satisfaction of the second respondent police. Further, within four weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, the petitioner shall approach the competent Court at Gujarat and seek appropriate relief.

8. The order granted by this Court shall remain in force for a period of four weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order or until such time regular orders are passed by the appropriate Court, whichever is earlier. Failure on the part of the petitioner to comply with the order within the time frame fixed by the Court, the order shall stand, automatically, cancelled.

9. With the above direction, this Criminal Original Petition is disposed of.
