The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 191(2), 191(3), 296(b), 115(2), 118(1), 351(3) of BNS in Crime No.701 of 2024, seek anticipatory bail.

2.Heard the learned counsel appearing on behalf of the parties.

3.The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity, the petitioners along with other accused, assaulted the de facto complainant, used abusive language and issued criminal threats to him. Hence the case.

4.The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and due to previous enmity they have been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that there is no previous case pending against the petitioners. He further submitted that the petitioners are ready and willing to abide by any condition that may be imposed on them.

5.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) while opposing for grant of bail to the petitioners submitted that due to previous enmity, the petitioners along with other accused, assaulted the de facto complainant, causing him a head injury. He further submitted that the injured was already discharged from the hospital and there is no previous case pending against the petitioners.

6.Taking into consideration the facts of the case and the submission that the petitioners have no bad antecedents and the injured was already discharged from the hospital, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners subject to the following conditions:

7.Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Ulundurpet on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand only) each with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the said Magistrate, on further condition that:

Crl.O.P.No.27736 of 2024

[a] if the petitioners fail to surrender before the said Magistrate within a period of fifteen days, this Order shall stand automatically cancelled;

[b] the petitioners shall stay at Chennai and report before the Inspector of Police, North Beach Police Station daily at 10.30 a.m., until further orders;

[c] the petitioners shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial;

[d] the petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560];

[f] If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 269 BNS.
