4. Learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing for grant of bail to the petitioner, submitted that the petitioner/accused had robbed a sum of Rs.1350/- from the de facto complainant, when he was returning from his shop along with his employee. He further submitted that the petitioner is a habitual offender, against whom, 10 previous cases of similar nature are pending.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record .

6. Taking into consideration the facts and the submissions made by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) and also considering the antecedents of the petitioner, this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.

7. Accordingly, the Criminal Original Petition stands dismissed for the present.
