bail in Crime No.604 of 2024 registered for the offence under Section 24(1) of Cigarette and Other Tobacco Products Act, 2003 r/w 123 of BNS Act.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused was found to be in illegal possession of 805 grams of banned tobacco products. Hence, the complaint.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that this is the second bail petition, and the earlier bail petition was already granted interim bail for three days in Crl.OP.No.27247 of 2024, due to the death of his mother. He also submitted that the petitioner is in custody from 25.10.2024 and he is also ready to abide by any other stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. petitioner along with other accused was found to be in illegal possession of 805 grams of banned tobacco products. He further submitted that there are four previous cases, out of which, one is an NDPS case and the others are IPC cases, pending against the petitioner, however, he opposed for granting bail to the petitioner.

5. At this juncture, the learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner, without prejudice to his defense and contention, is ready and willing to deposit an amount of Rs.10,000/- as non-refundable deposit to any welfare scheme of the Government or any other organization. Hence, he prayed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

6. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record.

Tamil Nadu Legal Service Authority, Chennai", without prejudice to his rights and contentions before the trial Court.

8. Merely because the petitioner deposits the said amount, it would not amount to admission of his guilt. Therefore, it is open to the trial Court to deal with the case independently.
