We have heard Mr.B.Balavijayan, learned counsel for the review

Rev.Appl.No.34 of 2024

petitioner and Mr.S.Raveekumar, learned Government Pleader for the respondents 2 to 5.

2. The review petitioner was disqualified in the tender process on the ground that FIR was lodged against the review petitioner. The same was challenged in writ petition bearing No.20662 of 2021. The writ petition was dismissed on 01.02.2022. Aggrieved thereby, the review petitioner filed appeal bearing No.488 of 2022. The same was dismissed by this Court on 12.09.2023. The review petitioner seeks review of the said order.

3. Learned counsel for the review petitioner submits that the review petitioner was the lowest bidder. The benefit would accrue to the public exchequer if the tender was allotted to the review petitioner. Though the matter was pending before this Court and the Court was seized with the matter, the tender was allotted to the sixth respondent, though he was not the lowest bidder. The review petitioner is not possessing criminal background. He was only agitating against the road tax imposed from August 2020.
