A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

Apprehending arrest in connection with Crime No.09 of 2024 registered for the offences punishable under Sections 420 & 109 of IPC, the present petition has been filed seeking anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that, the accused by inducing, had obtained the bank details of the defacto complainant and using that, had borrowed loans from several banks to the tune of Rs.75,25,000/- without the knowledge of the defacto complainant, by fabrication and forgery and thereby failed to repay the amounts to the banks and cheated the defacto complainant. Hence the case.

3. Pleading innocence on the part of the petitioner, false implication in the case, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks indulgence of this court. He would submit that there is absolutely no money transaction to the account of the petitioner, since, the defacto complainant is known to the petitioner and the other accused. He would submit that the main accused A-2 has been arrested and granted bail. He would further submits that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court.
