The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offence punishable under Sections 296(b), 132, 115(2), 351(3) BNS Act, in Crime No.603 of 2024 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner had travelled by foot board and it was questioned by the driver, the petitioner abused with filthy language and also attempted to assault the de-facto complainant. Hence the case.

3. The learned Counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he would submit that the driver of the bus did not stop at the bus stop and when it was questioned, a false complaint has been filed against the petitioner. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent while opposing for grant of anticipatory bail would submit that due to wordy quarrel, the petitioner abused with filthy language and
