The petitioners apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 333, 296(b), 115(2), 118(2), 351(2), 189(2) of BNS Act in Crime No.678 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to political dispute, the petitioners along with co-accused trespassed into the studio, where the defacto complainant was giving interview, abused and attacked the defacto complainant, thereby the defacto complainant sustained injuries and further the petitioners have also threatened the defacto complainant with dire consequences. Hence, this case.

3. Learned counsel appearing for petitioners submitted that petitioners are innocent and have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case, only with a view to harass the petitioners. He further submitted that the petitioners are not involved in any political parties and they are ready to produce solvent sureties and to abide with any conditions that may be imposed by this Court, therefore, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners stating that the petitioners along with other accused have abused and attacked the defacto complainant, due to political dispute between them, thereby the defacto complainant sustained minor injuries. He further submitted that the injured was discharged from the hospital.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners, the learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police and perused the materials available on record including the FIR.

6. Taking note of the facts and circumstances of the case, the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and also considering the fact that the injured was discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.
