The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police, for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 406 and 420 of IPC in Crime No.517 of 2024, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner under the pretence of purchasing a car had received an amount of Rs.3,01,000/- from the de facto complainant and subsequently cheated her. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. The learned counsel further submitted that the petitioner and the de facto complainant are relatives and the case of financial transaction has been given a criminal colour. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, the learned counsel prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the
